Welcome from the Company

We would like to welcome you to our first performance of 2007. This year sees our 10th anniversary and from very small but optimistic beginnings we have gone from strength to strength. We hope that you will join our celebrations throughout the year, beginning with tonight's performance by our younger members. Enjoy!

From the Director

I'm so lucky: The Unknown Theatre Company has supported me in all my requests to try something new, and this latest experiment - working with performers younger than usual - has turned out a treat! It's been a lot of fun working on this show, and for me a great pleasure to see how all the young performers have grown in confidence and skills throughout the workshop and rehearsal process. Thank you, everyone, for your support and hard work, and I hope you enjoy watching the show as much as we have enjoyed putting it together: like a chi-chi-child... YEAH!!

The Company

For the second half of this evening's entertainment, the older members of Company will perform songs from shows old and new.

There'll be classics from My Fair Lady, Chicago, Carousel, A Chorus Line & Flower Drum Song as well as songs from more recent shows such as Songs for a New World, Avenue Q, Wicked, Rent, & Moulin Rouge.

We'll have some other non-musical theatre items, but we'll also feature a song from our first commissioned show Dance of the Dragon, which we have now performed as far afield as Edinburgh, Monaco, St Avertin in France as well as at the Wales Millennium Centre, and at the Sherman Theatre as a workshop performance when the show was one of the winners of the Global Search for New Musicals in 2002.

We're happy to acknowledge the continuing support of our patrons:

Rhiannon Williams and Capt Ray Brinkworth
